To Whom It May Concern:

The Clarkston Area Youth Assistance Committee is planning a YOUTH RECOGNITION RECEPTION on Wednesday, April 28, 2010 at 7:00 p.m at Clarkston United Methodist Church. The purpose of this event is to recognize youth who have had outstanding contributions in volunteerism, behavior, academic achievement, and /or citizenship without compensation.

We ask you to reflect over the past year and consider youth who have stood out with commendable acts. As you can see, this year, in addition to recognizing the volunteer efforts of Clarkston's youth, we are also asking that you include students who can be recognized for quieter accomplishments. Perhaps the student who never fails to offer to help clean up after a function, or the student who is quick to befriend a new student. Perhaps you know of a student who has made significant strides in academic or behavioral improvement or a student who consistently remembers to assist a Senior Citizen in the neighborhood. We would like to be sure to recognize these students as well!

Be assured that all deserving youth nominated from our community will be recognized in some way for their contributions. All those nominated will receive certificates from CAYA and area dignitaries. The nominees, their families and the nominator will be invited to the dessert reception on April 28th. We want the young people in our community to get the recognition they deserve and with your help this can be accomplished.
